FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Nex-Tech named Continuum rookie of the year

Hays, Kan, 10.17.17 —Sixteen service provider partners of Continuum® were recognized at an awards ceremony on October 3, 2017 held in the Las Vegas Cosmopolitan Hotel. The event was part of the annual user's conference, called Navigate 2017.

Nex-Tech was named Rookie of the Year as the partner with the highest revenue growth since coming onboard in the previous twelve months.

“Navigate was founded as an event to benefit and celebrate our partners,” said Michael George, CEO, Continuum. “We want to take this moment to congratulate all our award-winning partners for their successes, not just in revenue and growth but in building effective business models and tackling the challenges of the MSP (managed service providers) market head-on. Whether they're succeeding in marketing or in elevating the skillsets of their technicians, we're here to recognize the achievements of these leaders in the managed service industry.”
