ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

Lifeline
&
ACP

Nex-Tech is committed to providing accessible telecommunications and broadband to customers and has been since 1951. We are proud to offer two assistance programs to help those in need stay connected to what matters most.

LIFELINE

Lifeline is an FCC program that helps make telecommunications services more affordable for low-income consumers. Lifeline provides qualifying subscribers with a discount on monthly voice and Internet service.

How it works

Lifeline assistance provides up to a $13.02 monthly discount on voice service and up to $9.25 monthly service on Internet, or a combined maximum discount for voice and Internet of $17.02 per month.

Do you qualify?

A consumer may be eligible if they meet one of the following criteria:

☑ Participates in certain assistance programs, such as SSI, Medicaid, SNAP, FPHA, or has a Veteran's Pension Benefit.

☑ Household income is at or below 135% of the federal poverty level. To determine if you qualify based on income and location, visit checklifeline.org for additional information and for the application process.

AFFORDABLE CONNECTIVITY PROGRAM (ACP)

The Affordable Connectivity Program is an FCC benefit program that helps ensure that households can afford the broadband they need for work, school, healthcare, and more.

How it Works

The ACP benefit provides a discount of up to $30 per month toward Internet service for eligible households. Qualifying households can also receive a one-time discount of up to $100 to purchase a laptop, desktop computer or tablet from participating providers.

Do You Qualify?

A household is eligible for the Affordable Connectivity Program if the household income is at or below 200% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines, or if a member of the household meets at least one of the criteria below:

☑ Received a Federal Pell Grant during the current award year;

☑ Meets the eligibility criteria for a participating provider's existing low-income Internet program;

☑ Participates in one of these assistance programs:
Free and Reduced-Price School Lunch Program, SNAP, Medicaid, Federal Housing Assistance, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), WIC, Veterans Pension, Survivor Benefits, or Lifeline.
